The LeicestershireLive Business Executive Awards 2021 will celebrate the people who are behind successful Leicestershire businesses.

The awards which are headline sponsored by the University of Leicester, will recognise executives of large organisations right through to young and up and coming entrepreneurs who have made outstanding achievements in their field of work.

The awards have become an established part of the region's business calendar, and provide excellent networking opportunities. Three finalists will be shortlisted within each category by the judging panel with the winners announced at the black tie event, which takes place on Thursday, November 4, at the King Power Stadium.
