The deadline to enter the West Midlands Tech Awards 2021 is now just a day away.

The annual event, which took an enforced hiatus last year because of the coronavirus pandemic, will celebrate the region's top tech and digital companies, entrepreneurs and rising stars across a broad range of different categories (see full list below).

This year's awards is being run by our sister websites BirminghamLive and CoventryLive in association with BusinessLive and we are delighted to welcome BT as headline sponsor.

The event will be held at the ICC in Birmingham on Monday November 15 and the deadline for entries is Thursday October 7.

Sponsorship opportunities are also now available – please email paige.jackson@reachplc.com for details or any other questions and follow the hashtag #WMTechAwards for updates on social media.

This year, we will be handing out ten different awards including three separate categories for businesses at different stages of their journeys.

There are also new prizes for excellence among professional services firms and collaboration which will recognise an outstanding tech project or initiative between multiple parties.

The West Midlands Tech Awards are open to companies and individuals working in Birmingham, Coventry, Warwickshire, the Black Country, Solihull and South Staffordshire.
