

Law firm Geldards confirm new partners in a series of promotions

Law firm Geldards has appointed new partners at its Cardiff office.

In a series of promotions the firm, which also has offices in London and the Midlands, has promoted five senior associates to partners, bringing its total number of partners to 61.

In Cardiff the new partners are Elizabeth Bray, a specialist in best practice and risk, Joga Singh, employment and immigration and Helen Snow, employment, data protection and information.

Geldards partner Helen Snow. Image Huw John.

Geldards partner Elizabeth Bray. Image Huw John.
(Image: HUW JOHN)

Moreover, six associates have been promoted to senior associate roles. In Cardiff they are Richard Kirby, injury dispute resolution and Ewelina Wagiel, corporate.

Three solicitors have also been promoted to associate level, including in Cardiff Henry Bright, commercial property and Madeleine Jordan, consensual dispute resolution.

Sign up to the BusinessLive Wales newsletter and follow us on LinkedIn

As well as an in-depth early morning newsletter, we will be sending out regular breaking news email alerts. To sign up to this service CLICK HERE

LinkedIn

And, follow us on LinkedIn to catch the latest stories and to network with the Welsh business community.

Jeff Pearson, chief executive at Geldards, said: "Geldards' success is built on the talented individuals we have within the firm and we are pleased to nurture and develop our skilled workforce.

"I offer my warmest congratulations to our five new partners and all of our colleagues whose dedication and hard work have been recognised with these well-deserved promotions. I look forward to watching them grow in their new roles as they continue to provide an exceptional client service and build the excellent reputation of Geldards."

Last year the firm move to new 24,000 sq ft offices in Cardiff at the 4 Capital Quarter building, having entered into a ten year lease

The firm opened its first office in the capital in 1854 and had been based at Dumfries House since 1991. It also has offices in Derby, Nottingham and London. It employs more than 350 staff, of which around 160 based in Cardiff.

Read More

Related Articles

▪

22 great firms in Wales to watch in 2022

BusinessLive

Read More

Related Articles

▪

The latest equity deals allowing Welsh firms to expand

and create new jobs

BusinessLive