

Premier Inn hotel opening dates for Llandudno and Porthmadog

Premier Inn will open two North Wales hotels within a fortnight of each other.

The chain will open the new sites in Llandudno and Porthmadog in May and June.

It will add 170 rooms in the region and create 60 permanent jobs.

Recruitment is set to get underway with open days later this month.

They both have the in-house Thyme restaurants in the buildings.

The brand has said it wants to open another site in Snowdonia in the future as demand continues to surge for breaks in North Wales.

A spokesperson for Premier Inn said: “Our plan is to open the new Premier Inn’s in Porthmadog and Llandudno within a fortnight of each other in late May and early June.

“Together the new hotels will bring 170 of our latest format Premier Inn and enhanced Premier Plus rooms to the hugely popular destinations – and we can’t wait to open the doors and welcome our first guests.
