

SPONSORED: Get your tickets for the 2021 Greater Birmingham Apprenticeship Awards

The 2021 Greater Birmingham Apprenticeship Awards are approaching, and tickets are available now. The awards – run in partnership with the Ladder For Greater Birmingham campaign and with Sandwell College as headline sponsor – will be held on November 11 at Edgbaston Stadium. For more information, or to get tickets, visit the official website – tickets are £65 + VAT

The awards celebrate the accomplishments of apprentices across the Greater Birmingham area, and the employers and training providers who support them. Despite the challenges that apprentices have faced over the last year – with the Coronavirus threatening to disrupt or outright halt the learning of many – they have continued to persevere and dedicate themselves to their work.

It is our privilege to recognise the determination and skills of these apprentices, and we can't wait to celebrate our finalists and winners on November 11. The awards will be hosted by presenter Santam Rana-Grindley – a familiar face to many as an arts and culture correspondent on Midlands Today.

If you'd like to join us in honouring the incredible apprentices of Birmingham, tickets are now on sale – and can be purchased via the official website. Tickets are £65 + VAT
