It takes a lot to create and sustain a business, let alone to break barriers and make waves in the industry. Those doing just that and putting Leicestershire on the map definitely deserve to see their hard work recognised by all.

The LeicestershireLive Business Awards, in association with Champions UK plc, is doing just that. Live at Maher Centre on Thursday, September 16, the LeicestershireLive Business Awards ceremony will take place for all of our business community to enjoy.

There are five headline sponsors this year: Freeths, Mazars, Janine Edwards Wealth Management, De Montfort University and Diginius. Find more information on the online hub, and contact Michelle Roberts, mroberts@championsukplc.com for tickets.

The Company of the Year award, sponsored by Janine Edwards Wealth Management, recognises firms that have stood out from the crowd. The finalists in this category have developed a strong business presence that can be universally admired for commercial practice and dedication to success.

The finalists are:

Finch Consulting Limited

Finch Consulting instils confidence in its clients that they understand and have control of engineering, health and safety, and environmental risks. Powered by its community values and driven by opportunity, the gravity of Finch is the sum of its world-class employees whose brilliant minds bring clear insight and real-life experience to their clients' solutions.

Food Attraction

The family-run company, Food Attraction Ltd, is a highly accredited, multi-award-winning food manufacturing firm that has successfully developed partnerships with numerous major high-street retailers, restaurant chains, airlines and railways. It specialises in a variety of dishes which are all produced to a very high-quality from its Leicester site, and has worked alongside major producers including Ginsters and Rustlers.
