

Swedish bank Handelsbanken expands in Cardiff

Swedish-owned corporate to wealth management bank, Handelsbanken, has expanded its presence in Cardiff.

The bank has relocated to larger offices at the 2 Callaghan Square office scheme where it has entered into a lease on 3,000 sq ft of space.

It was previously based at Park Place. As part of its new office investment it is also has plans to increase its headcount to 18.

Manager of its Cardiff operation, Chris Price, said: “The branch has served the capital city for the last 20 years. We’ve been greatly encouraged by the positive response we have received from local businesses and individuals, enabling us to invest and move to larger premises.

“At Handelsbanken, we aim to provide the very best possible service we can to our customers. We are pleased that so many have been able to feel the benefit of this and look forward to working with more customers at our new premises at Callaghan Square.”

Read more:

Tandem bank expanding in Cardiff

Starling creating 150 more jobs in Cardiff