

Tickets on sale for Christmas charity lunch

Tickets are now on sale for a Christmas charity lunch.

Trade body Birmingham Publicity Association is hosting the event which is raising funds for its charity partner Winston's Wish which supports children and young people after the death of someone close to them.

It takes place on December 2 at the Park Regis Hotel in Broad Street and will also give guests the chance to honour Jo Harrington, a former member who passed away in 2020.

Co-interim chairman Steve Price said: "Our festive dos are synonymous with this time of year and we know that this is going to be another sell-out success.

"It's a chance to unwind and relax, network and enjoy the very start of the season of goodwill to all men (and women) and as ever we know we are all going to have fun with the entertainment we have planned.

"Best of all we will be able to meet and introduce Winston's Wish which was a charity very close to our Jo's heart and be able to raise some much needed funds for them, which is what the BPA is all about."

The Christmas event and after party is expected to attract over 200 guests from across Birmingham.
