

Better Youth Better Pakistan Conference Quetta

The First Balochistan Sindh Youth Convention

Quetta, 7th October 2022: Young Social Reformers (Balochistan Headquarters), “based on the idea to achieve sustainable development for youth” Organized the event with the motive of empowering youth for a better tomorrow, in collaboration with the Department of Sports and Youth Affairs Government of Balochistan and Sindh Government, at Quetta club, Quetta on Friday.

A home to energetic young activists from all over the world who are dedicated to improving the welfare of the planet and its people, YSR’s “Balochistan team” organized an event where delegates, youth activists, Government dignitaries, and community leaders from all over Pakistan participated.

‘We will keep working toward the goal of owning Pakistan rather than merely talking about provinces or cities”, Says Founder & Chairman Mr. Fahad Rizvi”.

We will organize more provincial inter-exchange youth programs in all of Pakistan’s provinces and encourage youth to participate in such activities. We will also bring the youth delegations from all of the provinces together”, Said Mr. Muhammad Ishaq Jamali, Secretary Sports & Youth Affairs Department, Government of Balochistan.

Chief Guest Mr. Akhtar Inayat Bhurgri, Secretary Sports & Youth Affairs Department, Government of Sindh, discussed bringing the youth in underdeveloped areas, including Tharparkar, in the foreground and encouraging them to take part in and manage youth capacity building in underdeveloped areas of Sindh.”

This is the enthusiasm we want to see in our young, the leaders of tomorrow. I am thrilled to see youth delegations in front of me who have traveled vast distances from their homes, cities, and provinces to attend this conference”, added Mr. Sadiqullah Khan, Director of Pakistan’s Custom Academy Karachi.

Young social reformers have been identifying and serving the needs of young people since 2000 with the continuous commitment of twenty years, through youth development projects and programs and informal yet essential educational activities that support their lifetime learning.
