

Economic growth slows, greener airlines and China's 'Singles Day'

The UK's economic growth slows sharply between July and September, as the supply crisis takes its toll. Ian King also speaks to the chief of United Airlines about plans for a low carbon future. And find out about Singles Day in China – a kind of “anti-Valentine's Day” which has become the world's biggest shopping day.

:: Listen and subscribe to The Ian King Business Podcast here.

Advertisement