

Employment figures, Christmas trading and driverless cars

Ian King analyses the latest employment statistics with a chief economist at the Institute of Directors.

He also looks at Christmas trading figures with the chief executive of Hotel Chocolat after the retailer saw a boost in sales over the festive period.

Plus, hear from the founder of UK self-driving start-up, Wayve. The company's raised nearly £150m to scale up its technology.

:: Listen and subscribe to The Ian King Business Podcast here.

Advertisement