

Govt borrowing's up, profits at Nationwide soar, and the early start to Christmas shopping

Ian looks at the latest government borrowing figures – and discusses why they're higher than expected.

He talks to Nationwide as half-year profits more than double, and retail sales return to growth – as shoppers start their Christmas spending early.

We also have the boss of advertising giant, Clear Channel, and the chief executive of Material Evolution, which is behind sustainable concrete.

:: Listen and subscribe to The Ian King Business Podcast here.

Advertisement