

Hope for holidays, keeping up spirits, and car production shortages

Ian King speaks to the chief executive of the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders about how a combination of staff and supply shortages is threatening the revival of UK car production.

Plus, hear from the CEO of the world's biggest spirits company – Diageo – about sales growth. And the president of P&O Cruises discusses the return of international cruises.

:: Listen and subscribe to The Ian King Business Podcast here.

Advertisement