

Primark to open four new stores and create 850 jobs

Primark has announced a £140m investment leading to the opening of four new shops and the creation of at least 850 jobs.

Parent company Associated British Food said it plans to make the investment over the next two years in its UK operations.

As part of that investment the company said “at least” four new shops will be opened.

The locations announced on Friday are

- Bury St Edmunds in Suffolk
- Craigavon in Northern Ireland
- Salisbury in Wiltshire

More on Retail

Retirees and women to be targeted in Halfords drive for 1,000 new car repair technicians

Retail footfall expected to be up 12.8% on Black Friday as consumers move away from online shopping

Fall in spending and fierce competition gave Joules bosses an uphill battle to save business

Related Topics:

- Retail

- Teesside Park in North Yorkshire

The new shops will increase selling space by more than 160,000 square feet.

Advertisement

Investment is also being put into existing locations and a dedicated Primark Home space will open in Liverpool.

Alongside the new stores, Primark will extend and invest in existing stores and will relocate its stores in Bradford and High Wycombe. In Bradford, Primark will move from its existing Kirkgate Shopping Centre location to The Broadway in the city centre.