

Profits at the banks, takeaways and electric motors

There's good news for two of the UK's biggest banks – Sky's Ian King sits down with the bosses of NatWest and Santander to discuss their profits for the first half of the year.

He's also speaking to the managing director of Taco Bell about trends at the takeaways, and the founder of a Norfolk-based electric motor manufacturer.

:: Listen and subscribe to The Ian King Business Podcast here.

Advertisement