

Ryanair returns to profit, cut price eCommerce software, Santander talks digital platforms

Ian King speaks to Ryanair's Chief Financial Officer – who's warning of a "fragile" market in air travel, despite returning to profit for the first time since the pandemic; there's also the Business Minister talking about the government's software scheme "Help to Grow"; and Santander launches its new Navigator digital platform to help UK firms expand globally.

:: Listen and subscribe to The Ian King Business Podcast here.

Advertisement