

Ryanair's COVID turbulence warning, a bumper year for tech and the rise of NFTs

Sky's Ian King speaks to Ryanair's chief financial officer Neil Sorahan about more potential COVID disruption. He also looks into tech IPOs raising £6.6bn in 2021. Plus, the rise of non-fungible tokens and an artist selling digital art to raise money for charity.

:: Listen and subscribe to The Ian King Business Podcast here.

Advertisement