

The impact of banning Russian gas, keeping Ukrainians connected, and the electric Lotus SUV

Sky's Ian King looks at what a ban on Russian gas might mean for Europe's economy. He also speaks to Aleksander Komarov, the chief executive of Kyivstar, Ukraine's leading mobile operator. Plus, more on Lotus unveiling the Eletre – the car it's billing as the world's first electric hyper-SUV.

:: Listen and subscribe to The Ian King Business Podcast here.

Advertisement